The Glebe NS is a co-educational primary school with a Church of Ireland ethos under the patronage of The Rt. Rev. Bishop Michael Burrows.

“Church of Ireland/Anglican” ethos in the context of a Church of Ireland primary school means the ethos and characteristic spirit of the Anglican Christian tradition. This seeks to nurture and encourage the formation of the intellectual, academic, sporting, social and religious abilities of each child within the framework of the community of faith. A Church of Ireland ethos encourages intellectual diversity of thought and encourages the individual to seek to understand themselves, the world around them and the connection between the world and the Divine. This understanding of school ethos promotes pluralism in thought and living, in the context of a Christian school community. Drawing on its Anglican tradition, the Church of Ireland School encourages home/family involvement, highlighting the importance of the family/home in the social and emotional development of the child, and more broadly, the community of the school and church.

In accordance with S.15 (2) (b) of the Education Act, 1998 the Board of Management of The Glebe NS shall uphold, and be accountable to the patron for so upholding, the characteristic spirit of the school as determined by the cultural, educational, moral, religious, social, linguistic and spiritual values and traditions which inform and are characteristic of the objectives and conduct of the school

Mission Statement and School Aims of The Glebe NS

We provide a happy, caring and stimulating environment where children recognise and achieve their full potential. Our school is a place where curiosity and wonder meet excellence and achievement. Through our child centred approach we promote the social, academic, moral, spiritual, physical, aesthetic and emotional development of all pupils. At The Glebe NS children learn respect for themselves and others. We value the partnership that exists between school, parents and community and the part it plays in realising the full potential of each child. The Glebe NS respects the individuality of all children, especially those with special educational needs. The school encourages the professional and personal development of teachers and staff and promotes learning as a lifelong process. While The Glebe NS is a school with a Church of Ireland ethos, it also has due recognition and respect for all other religions. Déanfaimid iarracht Gaeilge a labhairt gach lá agus teastaíonn uainn dearcadh dearfach i leith na Gaeilge a chothú i measc na ndaltaí.

The Glebe NS, through thorough planning and preparation in advance, endeavours to provide leaning experiences for the children within a structured day. It strives to create a strong atmosphere of enthusiasm and a deep love for learning. It aspires to develop to the full the individual child’s ability without gender stereotyping. The Glebe NS aims to promote high standards of moral and cultural values. It aims to enable the children to read, write, enumerate and communicate effectively and to their full potential. Furthermore, it strives to seek fruitful co-operation between all persons and organisations concerned with the child’s development. It aims to promote, both individually and collectively, the professional and personal development of teachers through staff development programmes. The Glebe NS encourages the involvement of parents through home/school contacts and through their involvement in the Parents Association.

In implementing the school curriculum it endeavours to keep it child centred, activity based, and relevant to the lives of the pupils. The Glebe NS recognises and caters for individual differences in pupils. It also endeavours to develop in pupils an awareness of their Irish Heritage and the cultures of the European and International communities. The Glebe NS strives to promote a friendly and relaxed atmosphere where children will be taught an awareness of self and others and where they will be encouraged to love and help each other.
